Raminder founded Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery Melbourne (PRSM), a private practice that specialises in various aspects of plastic and reconstructive surgery, hand surgery as well as cosmetic surgery and non-surgical rejuvenation in collaboration with the other plastic surgeons listed in the practice. At PRSM we aim to offer the best possible care in treating various problems with surgeons in the practice who have subspecialty interest in different areas of plastic, reconstructive and cosmetic surgery. A major part of his practice involves reconstructive work with surgeons and specialists from other specialties such as ENT, Orthopaedics, Neurosurgery and Dermatology to treat complex problems. Raminder's passion is to restore form and function by performing plastic and reconstructive surgery of the face, hand and body and he is actively involved in volunteer plastic surgery through Interplast. Raminder consults locally in Drouin and operates at Maryvale Private Hospital.

Specialties

- Reconstructive & microsurgery, especially in the field of head, neck and hand surgery
