Doctor Highlight

Mr Namal Munasinghe Plastic & Reconstructive Surgeon

MBBS (Hons), MRCS (Ed), FRACS (plast)

Mr Namal Munasinghe is a passionate and dedicated Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon who strives to achieve the best possible outcomes for his patients. He believes in walking alongside every patient throughout their surgical journey, taking the time to explain all aspects of care with clarity, empathy and professionalism.

Mr Munasinghe completed his specialist Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery training in Australia, gaining extensive experience in leading hospitals across Canberra, Melbourne and Perth before choosing Melbourne as his home. With over 10 years of experience in plastic surgery, he has developed broad expertise across both reconstructive and aesthetic surgery, including valuable time at the Victorian Adult Burns Service at The Alfred Hospital.

His surgical career began in Yorkshire, United Kingdom, where he obtained Membership of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh (MRCS). Originally from Sri Lanka, he graduated from the University of Colombo and undertook his internship at Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital in the UK, before advancing his training in Australia.

Namal is also a devoted husband, father and son, which shapes his philosophy of care: every patient is treated with the same dedication and respect as he would want for his own family.
